DETAILED ACTION

1. This application has been reviewed. Original claims 1-7 are pending. The rejections cited are as stated below:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 4, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In particular, it is unclear what factors are taken in determining the other set of samples to be similar to or different than the music purchased. Furthermore, claim 3, determines if the user wants to buy music, there is no purchasing taken place. Therefore, it is unclear how these determining steps are performed since there is no music purchased in the claimed limitations.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kaplan US Patent No. 5,963,916.

Claims 1-6, Kaplan discloses a computer implemented method and a corresponding system for providing user requested music comprising the steps of; receiving user input defining a plurality of music search parameters, wherein some of the plural music search parameters describe music content, searching for music samples based upon the user provided search parameters, presenting music samples to the user based upon the user provided input parameters, determining if the user wants to buy any of the presented music samples, determining if the user wants to sample another set of music samples similar to the music purchased, and determining if the user wants another set of music samples that is different than the purchased music (abstract, column 8, lines 33-67, and column 13, line 31 thru column 17, line 62).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Goldhaber et al. US Patent No. 5,855,008 (hereinafter "Goldhaber").

Claim 7, Goldhaber discloses a computer implemented method for tracking user purchases comprising the steps of providing a purchase ticket to the user, and tracking user purchases with the purchase ticket (figures 11-14, column 6, line 36-65, and column 15, line 27 thru column 20, line 9).
